

Tylenol Policy

The Infant Home does not give any infant Tylenol or Motrin without a doctor's note stating that the child's fever is not a result of a contagious illness. I also ask parents to please not give their infant Tylenol before bringing them to care as it often masks contagious symptoms until it wears off, thus infecting the other children and staff.

Thank you for helping us keep everyone healthy.